ASSOCIATED STUDENTS
MONTEREY PENINSULA COLLEGE

Inter-Club Council

The purpose of the Inter-Club Council (ICC) is to serve as a central force bringing together all of the student organizations for resource, advocacy and networking.

Student Organizations offer an excellent way to meet others, develop leadership skills, and become part of the experience that lay the foundation of our college and help fulfill its vision. By becoming involved, your time at MPC will become more meaningful, productive, and enjoyable, and you will enhance your learning outside of the classroom.

Open to all students of the MPC community, student organizations enrich our campus life through events, programs, activities, projects and service. They fall into several categories including; academic, community service, cultural, political/social action, recreation, religious, and sports. MPC organizations are diverse and very active, so our campus offers countless ways to be involved!

The Inter-Club Council meets every Tuesday during regular semester from 4:10 - 5:00 p.m. in the Costanoan Lounge located in the Student Center.

Starting a Club

Before you begin the process of forming a new campus club, we urge you to research and review existing active clubs. These clubs have been formed to meet a variety of social, cultural, political, recreational and religious interests. You may find an existing club that already meets your needs. There are many benefits from joining an existing club. It is often more effective to combine forces than duplicate efforts and/or services thereby creating competition for resources such as finances and members. Most clubs are eager for new members; they want new talent, ideas, enthusiasm and commitment.

If you are unable to identify an existing club that will satisfy you, by all means, start your own. There may be other students out there with interests similar to yours.

Starting a new club can be like starting a new business... many fail during the first year. We urge you to consider the following:

Club Purpose

- How do you define your club?
- What are your proposed goals?
- What do you hope to accomplish?
- How do you fit in on campus?
- How will you serve the students and/or community?
- Who will be your advisor?
- If your organization is an academic interest group, is there an academic department with which you can or will be affiliated?
- What makes your club unique?

Club Membership

- Are there other people you already know who want to join?
- How will you recruit other members?
- How will you convince them to join?
- What will this group have to offer? Can they find this elsewhere?

Club Structure

- Will this be a formal, long term group or are you forming to work on a particular, one time only issue and/or activity?
- What officers will you have? How will they be selected and for how long?
- Will you be drafting a Constitution and Bylaws to address procedures?
- How often & when will you meet?

Activating the Club

1. Obtain a member of the MPC faculty or staff to serve as the advisor of your club. (Only current full-time faculty, staff or administrator, or adjunct faculty may serve as advisor)
2. Obtain and complete the following (3) forms: Club Activation form, Advisor Agreement form, and Sample Constitution form.
3. Obtain a copy of the Club Handbook and the ICC Constitution and By-Laws from the ASMPC Office.
4. Fill out the Club Activation form completely, including:
 - Advisor's signature
 - List all Club officers / members (minimum of 6 currently registered MPC students are needed to start a club.)
 - Attach a copy of your club's constitution.
 - Return all completed forms to the VP of Student Organizations or the Student Activities Coordinator.
5. Designate one club member to be the ICC Representative to attend each weekly ICC meeting.

Renewing the Club

Each fall semester all existing clubs must renew their status to remain an active club on campus by completing the Club Activation form.

Reactivation for clubs must be done within the first 2 weeks of the fall semester.

Choosing an Advisor

All registered student clubs, organizations, activities and events must be supervised and advised by a member of the Monterey Peninsula College faculty or staff at all times. Many members of the MPC faculty and staff would enjoy volunteering their time; advisors volunteer to work with student clubs because they want to do it, and because they feel they can make a contribution to the organization's success.

Consider carefully when choosing an advisor. For example, if your club is an academic interest group, check with the academic department to see if there is a member of that department who may be interested in advising. Clubs may choose to have more than one advisor so that advisor responsibilities may be divided. Some of the responsibilities are:

- Must attend all regularly scheduled meetings of their club.
- Must attend and supervise ALL the functions and special events of their clubs in its entirety, i.e. “first in, last out”.
- Must be present on all off-campus field trips and conferences of the club.
- See that the club adheres to policies and rules of Monterey Peninsula College as well as obey local statutes and state laws.
- Ensure that a club representative attends the weekly ICC meeting so that the club remains in active status.
- Make sure copies of club meeting minutes are maintained and filed.

Potential advisors need to review all of the advisor’s policies, procedures, guidelines and helpful hints as well as the rest of the Club Handbook. The advisor’s signature is required on the Club Activation form, the Advisors Agreement form, the ICC Funding Proposal form, and possibly other forms.

Recruiting New Members

New members are the life of any organization. They provide new ideas, enthusiasm and potential officers. Because everyone wants new members and because new clubs are starting all the time, the competition for new members can be intense. Here are ways to help your club successfully recruit and retain new members.

Club Lobo Day

Every fall and spring semester, the ICC hosts a fun-filled Lobo Day Event in the Quad. This is a great event in which all clubs as well as MPC services participate in. It is also a great forum for clubs, potential or active, to recruit new members. You must reserve a table for the event by signing up in the ASMPC Office.

Club Orientation Meeting

Plan an orientation meeting during your regular club meeting time to acquaint prospective members with your club:

- Show slides of previous events
- Have display of scrapbook, awards, newsletters, etc.
- Invite former club officers
- Have an official welcome and brief explanation of your club, introduce your officers and announce upcoming events and projects (have handouts available)

- Put your best foot forward without deceiving prospects as to who you are

Word of Mouth

Word of mouth is the most effective way to recruit for your club. Encourage your current members to spread the word among their family and friends and to invite a new person to each meeting or activity.

At anytime, potential or established clubs may set up an information table in the quad. Reserve a table by filling out a Services Request form. At your table, have handouts of upcoming meetings and activities and the purpose of your club. Above all, keep your members active and involved. Let them know that their contributions are needed and appreciated. Following these steps will lead to a more enjoyable and rewarding experience for both the new members and the club as a whole.

Club Officer Positions

Successful clubs elect officers that are good leaders and managers. Here are some suggested positions and descriptions to consider:

- Club President – Acts as executive leader of the club and responsible for the day to day operations including but not limited to preparing agendas, supervising officers and club meetings.
- Club Vice President – Fulfills duties of the President any time President may be absent and/or when position becomes vacant. Assists President in duties.
- ICC Representative – Attends all ICC weekly meetings and reports back to club on meeting discussions, upcoming campus events and other related business. Acts as a liaison between the ICC and the club. Completes and submits all official paperwork for club.
- Secretary – Assists President in preparation of agenda. Takes and transcribes minutes at all official club meetings. Compiles and copies handouts and publicity items. Writes and sends all correspondence for the club.
- Treasurer – Reviews and makes recommendations to club on matters pertaining to income and expenditures of club funds. Submits financial reports to the club as requested.

Constitutions, Agendas, Minutes and Recordkeeping

Constitution

All clubs are required to prepare a club constitution. See the Sample Constitution form for a suggested format to assist you in preparing your club's constitution.

Agendas, Minutes and Recordkeeping

It is mainly the responsibility of the president, the secretary, and the advisor to develop club meeting agendas. Meeting minutes should be taken and transcribed primarily by the secretary. Minutes from the current year's meetings are valuable in preparing agendas because they contain reminders of unfinished business. Minutes from previous years are also helpful because they provide information about regularly scheduled yearly business. Meeting minutes should include the following:

- Type of meeting (general, business, board, committee)
- Date, time and place
- List of those present and absent
- Time of call to order
- Approval and/or amendments to previous meeting minutes
- Record of a summary of the discussions from committee reports, officer reports, old and new business, advisor reports, member updates and open forum.
- Record of all voting results
- Time of adjournment
- Nomination or submission and transcriber's name
- Time, date and place of next meeting

ICC Meetings

ICC holds a weekly meeting with all active clubs every Tuesday during the regular fall and spring semesters. The meetings start at 4:10 p.m. and last approximately one hour, the meetings are held in the Costanoan Room located in the College Center.

It is mandatory that a club representative attends each weekly meeting. It is suggested that a specific member be designated to attend the meetings. Clubs must attend at least 50% of the current semester's ICC meetings, or if a newly activated club, 50% of the ICC meetings since club activation. Advisors and other club members are welcome and encouraged to attend. Anyone more than 10 minutes late to the meeting will be marked absent and may not vote but will still be allowed to present a proposal if needed. One (1) person may represent (1) Student Organization at a meeting for the purposes of voting.

Membership

Membership shall be afforded to all recognized student organizations, as well as any who would like to create a new organization, providing they are in accordance with the ICC Constitution and By-Laws and file the appropriate paperwork.

Criteria for New Clubs

Upon activation, the new club will enter a four week probationary period. ICC meeting attendance is mandatory during this period.

Week (1) Attend with no voting privileges

Week (2) Attend, with full voting privileges granted

Week (3) May submit a funding proposal

Week (4) Funding may be granted, probationary status is lifted, and the club is fully recognized.

Criteria for Current Clubs

All current clubs must reactivate their club each academic year. Please submit a new Club Activation form at the beginning of each fall semester.

Receiving Funds

Once the ASMPC Inter-Club Council approves a club, it may request funds throughout the fall and spring semesters. Please note the following policies for club funding:

- New Clubs are entitled to a $200.00 start up fund. A club may only receive this money once and ICC attendance requirements do not apply.
- A club that misses more than 50% of the meetings of the current semester will be considered to be inactive.
- With the exception of start-up funds, the ICC will not transfer funds to a club account.
- Any unspent funds/materials must be returned to the ICC.
- Receipts not turned in within six weeks of the activity will not be paid.
- Funding for things such as conferences, special events, workshops, and guest speakers are also available. In order to apply for funding for these needs, the club must submit an ICC Funding Proposal form to the ICC chair no later than the Wed. prior to the meeting for the following week in order to be on the agenda as a discussion item.

Advisor Information

Serving as an advisor to a Monterey Peninsula College Club is a very rewarding experience. It provides an opportunity to interact with students and to help them have a fulfilling and well-rounded college experience. Advisors are an essential part of Monterey Peninsula College and the Inter-Club council and can make significant contributions to student success and retention.

Club advisors ensure that students have the opportunity to grow and learn from their co-curricular experiences. Advisors provide guidance and direction to students. Their mature judgment is invaluable to a student group. Advisors help the club members to achieve the purpose for which it was organized and provide continuity and support for the organization from year to year.

Please take the time to read the ICC Constitution, and Bylaws, so you will be aware of the guidelines and procedures the clubs are required to follow. Acquainting yourself with policies and procedures should help to prevent problems from occurring.

Club advisors must be a currently employed full-time faculty or staff, administrator or adjunct faculty of MPC and must retain that status to continue to serve as official club advisor. Rare exceptions to this policy are permitted, but must be first approved by the Vice President of Student Services.

RESPONSIBILITIES AND EXPECTATIONS

1. Advisors must become sufficiently knowledgeable of the purpose and activities of the organization to advise the members of their actions and the possible consequences of irresponsible behavior.

voluntary and that I will not receive compensation, load credit, release time or other benefits from the College for doing so. I agree to contact the Student Activities Coordinator if I have any problems or concerns.

Club Advisor Event Responsibilities

Club advisors should allow student officers maximum freedom and responsibility in the planning and operating of all events. However, it is the duty of the faculty advisor to see that all responsibilities are met and the events are carefully planned. The advisor should be informed of all plans being made and be responsible for the following:

1. All events must be approved by the ASMPC Inter-Club Council at their regularly scheduled weekly meeting, which are held on Tuesdays.

1. The Club Advisor(s) must attend and be present for the entire off-campus activity.
2. Obtain and complete the Conference Travel Agreement Form in addition to the Funding Proposal form - at least 3-4 weeks in advance of the trip.
3. Return both forms to either the ICC Chair or Student Activities Coordinator so that the item can be included on the next ICC meeting agenda. Once the funding is approved the paperwork will then be forwarded to the Vice President of Student Services for final approval. A list of all participants and a Field Trip Liability Waiver form for each student must be on file in the Student Activities Office prior to departure. All participants must be currently enrolled as students at MPC. The club advisor will be notified when the trip has been approved by the Student Activities Coordinator.
