Review of Scholarship Applications

- After scholarship applications are reviewed, they are sorted and forwarded to the appropriate committees or donors. Incomplete applications will not be forwarded.
- Committees are composed of MPC faculty, staff, students, and community members. Committees follow general guidelines provided by Student Financial Services, and all applications are carefully reviewed. Selection is based on the criteria set forth by the scholarship donor. Some committees or donors may choose to interview finalist(s). Decisions made by the committees or donors are final.
- Due to the large number of scholarship applicants, only the recipients will be notified. Recipients will be notified by letter or e-mail, if a scholarship is awarded.
